When I was a teen I read the andreasson affair and phase 2 was also by the same people and these books changed my life as I still read ufo books and I think of you and Becky whenever they talked about ufos. I had the privilege of being friends with you were a Becky and we used to have friendly chats about food ufos and stuff. You and Becky will forever have a special place is my heart and you both well deserved your wings gone but you and Becky are finely together again..gone but not forgotten...life is way too short

There was no reason to read this obituary, except there was. I lived in the area, Fitchburg and spent time in a backyard close to where Betty grew up, just gazing at the sky with others. I read the books, discussed with friends who had read them and had a unexplained quick encounter of my own in the mid '80's. RIP Betty, wherever you are. We learned a lot from you. Continue Reading
